

10KNOTS 2007 PINOT NOIR

APPELLATION: Edna Valley, California

WINEMAKING: Fruit from our MacGregor Vineyard, one of the oldest in the Edna Valley, produces the finest Pinot Noir year in and year out. Influenced by the cooling coastal climate, early morning fog and afternoon breezes allow the grapes to reach maturity slowly and evenly. 91 Cases Produced.

TASTING NOTES: A graceful manner measures the maiden voyage of our Pinot Noir. Graceful, steady and balanced the 2007 vintage welcomes you with notes of tart cherry, cranberry, cedar and hints of spearmint. Undulating waves of black cherry and vanilla caramel indulge the senses followed by a touch of cardamom and toasted hazelnut. The finish does not disappoint with essences of brandied cherries mingled with sweet baking spices, caramel and traces of coffee enveloped in layers of a delicate pastry.
