

SEXTANT 2012

'NIGHT WATCH' PROPRIETARY RED

APPELLATION: Paso Robles, California

WINEMAKING: Aged 19 months in 22% new French and 15% new Hungarian oak

TASTING NOTES: While blends should never be lacking in texture, complexity should figure most prominently for the completeness of an assembled wine. The 2012 Sextant Night Watch delivers in grand style. Blackberries and figs are woven together while cedar and sandalwood notes appear. Hints of cardamom and red currants operate at the edges as lively tannins allow the layers to coalesce. Tinged with slate and mesquite notes, the finish rolls to a satisfying end with complexity having been displayed.

TECHNICAL NOTES:	pH - 3.8
Malolactic Fermentation - 100%	Residual Sugar - .21
Total Acidity - .6g	Alcohol - 14.9%

BOTTLED: July 31, 2014

SUGGESTED AGING: Enjoy now or cellar through 2021.

A critic favorite that expresses silky tannins and sophistication unheard of for Zin and Petite Sirah . . . It simply does not get much better.
